To all AFAA Corporate Members

To maximize your benefits as a corporate member, please share this information with your employees. Remember that all of your employees are members of AFAA, not just the voting member.

For employees –

1. Go to www.afaa.org and register on the website.
2. Send an email to admin@afaa.org using “please upgrade my profile” in the subject line. Include your name, company name, and the username you chose to register, and request that your profile be upgraded to member status. Our system does not automatically know you are a member and we need to do this manually once you are registered on the website.
3. This will give you access to member pricing and to the Members Only Page.
4. The Members Only Page contains information exclusively for AFAA members, such as copies of presentations at our Annual Meetings and Breakfast.
5. Membership benefits include:
  - a. Discounts on all online training, seminars and webinars
  - b. Discounts on forms and manuals
  - c. Our monthly e-newsletter
  - d. Information on current AFAA activities to improve our industry
  - e. Information on current AFAA codes & standards activities
  - f. Access to the Tools page under Resources. This page has valuable information such as Battery and Voltage Drop Calculation programs

Don't miss out on your membership benefits. Please register today!
